

I feel that xm should have the right to broadcast anything that they want. As a paying customer I do not want the NAB to dictate what I can listen too. The quality of radio programming has gone downhill in my opinion and that is why I now listen to xm only.